

MORNING APPEAL.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 22, 1879

RECOLLECTIONS OF THE LATE HARRY MICHOLS.

This is the title of a brilliant sketch from the pen of Sam Davis in the last number of the Argonaut. It is written in Sam's peculiar style, and shows how keenly he appreciated and thoroughly understood the subject of the sketch. It brings out in bold relief the peculiar traits which so distinguished Mr. Nichols above his fellows, and paints vividly the tints which made him what he was—a diamond whose facets sparkled in every light.

W. A. R.

Some prowling tramp, some midnight disturber of the peace, some reckless cuss without the fear of God or a shot gun before his eyes, some old soaker just wakened from a drunken sleep, with parched lips and throat and ne'er a drop to cool his fevered tongue; has been in the habit of starting the hydrant in front of our office, and inundating our street, and we give him fair warning that we have mounted a stove pipe on the roof and we will annihilate him on the first drip from that spout.

DOCTOR DE FREYE, the well known specialist, can now be consulted at the Arlington House, room No. 5. Persons afflicted with chronic and special diseases will do well to avail themselves by calling at once at the doctor's office, since he will remain here but a short time. Consultations free. 1w*

DEPARTURES.—The following passengers departed on the southern stage yesterday morning: P. D. Byran, Wm. Potter, Mrs. Barron and four children, Mrs. Tumey, and two children, Mrs. Mary Lewis and child, W. Bradley, Mrs. Mahony, Mrs. Hurkay.

GONE SOUTH.—After many weeks of preparation, John T. Pantlind left yesterday afternoon on his southern prospecting trip. He left here looking like a Texan ranger, mounted and equipped.

THE great demand for silver in China prevents the Treasury Department from purchasing that metal, in large quantities at reasonable rates, for the Carson Mint, so, at least, says the telegraph.

THE race between "Illusion and "J. D. Fry" takes place at the N. A. M. & M. Society's track to-morrow afternoon. It will be a square and interesting contest for superiority of speed.

GAME LAW.—The game law expires on the first proximo, and in anticipation of the sport that is before them, hunters are fixing up their sporting things. Sage hen can be killed now.

THE EUREKA trouble has evidently been settled some way or other, for no more advices were received here yesterday from that warlike section.

MR. R. H. WRIGHT, of the State Treasurer's office came back yesterday morning from a fishing and hunting excursion to Grizzly Valley.

REMOVED.—Messrs. Wells and Stewart attorneys at law, have removed their office to the second story of Magee's building, opposite the Capitol.

MR. W. D. TORREYSON and family returned from Lake Tahoe yesterday afternoon, after a two weeks' vacation in that delightful vicinity.

HARRIS BROTHERS have sent an order to New York for 1,000 doz. spools of thread, containing 2,400,000 yards.

THE southern stage brought in one bar of bullion from Belleville yesterday, consigned to Wells, Fargo & Co.

AN assessment of fifty cents was yesterday levied on the capital stock of the Caledonia Mining Company.

MISS ANNIE MARTIN, one of our public school teachers, returned from California yesterday morning.

COL. JAMES G. FAIR passed up on the train yesterday morning, looking very robust for an invalid.

WILL RETURN.—Gover Kinkead and Mr. H. M. Yerington will return from Bodie to-morrow.

THE usual musical and literary soiree takes place at the Reform Club's rooms to-morrow evening.

A brisk wind prevailed yesterday which will likely blow up a rain storm in a day or two.

THE Colorado No. 2 at Monitor, sent one large bar of silver bullion to the Mint yesterday.

THE District Court, Hon. S. D. King, Judge, will be in session this morning.

THE Bodie Mining Company have declared a dividend of fifty cents per share.

THE funeral of Eddie Sickles took place yesterday and was well attended.

NORR end stocks came up very "groggy" in the board yesterday.

OUR BUSINESS MEN.

There is no town in Nevada with the same population which has finer stores, filled with first-class goods, of large variety than Carson City. A visit to any of our well-known houses will convince any one of the fact. In pursuance of our business as a faithful chronicler, we have been visiting some of our polite store keepers, as we propose doing regularly; reporting from time to time their stock and giving our impression of them generally. We can only say that they are, one and all, a gentlemanly set of men.

MORRIS AND COMPANY.

These gentlemen have the neatest arranged store we have seen for a long while. Their stock, which consists of dry goods and the usual small wares found in stores of that kind, ladies' shoes, carpets, oil cloths, etc., is very complete and beautifully kept, and from a number of fair faces we saw in confidential "dicker" at their counters, we should say that Morris & Company either know their business to perfection or have superior goods. It is the kind of store we would like to clerk in, and it's the store we should like, if we were a lady, in such case to deal in.

OLEOVICH BROTHERS.

We once indexed a library and at another time began to copy a Dictionary, and yesterday we undertook to make a short list of the stock of Oleovich Brothers, but we brought up in despair before we had well begun. We started on dry goods, but the display was too much for us, and we came down simply to "dry goods." Furnishing goods came next in still greater variety; and then such an array of trimmings and fancy article! Well, we gave it up, and passed into the department where heavy goods are displayed, where a monstrous stock of clothing, boots and shoes, oil cloths and carpets, wall paper, hats and caps, and even bedding, almost made us believe that it was the Institute Exhibition at San Francisco. Messrs. Oleovich's stock of boots and shoes is immense, and they showed us some Eastern made ladies' shoes and custom made boots of a very superior quality. These custom made boots they say are a specialty. Altogether, it is a bazaar of everything that is needed in a personal outfit or for house furnishing, and everything is of the best quality. We were not only highly pleased but agreeably surprised by our visit to the Oleovich Brothers' establishment.

AN ANONYMOUS SCOUNDREL.—A well known and highly respectable citizen showed an Appeal reporter an anonymous letter last evening, written by an individual who signs himself "Vindicator," in which he requests that the sum of $200 be sent to him through the mail to Virginia, and in the event of the failure of the citizen to do so, he, the anonymous writer, will reveal certain little indiscretions to the citizen's wife and bring corroborating proof of the truthfulness of his statement. The gentleman who exhibited the letter to the reporter, states that he knows a half dozen other well known men in this community who were favored with similar communications, neither of whom will pay any attention to the demand of the scoundrelly writer. If the gentlemen in question are guilty of any "little indiscretions" we may have a few Sprague-Conkling episodes right here, at home. Immoralities should always be discouraged, it is true, but times are so quiet and items-picking so short, that even such matters of news cannot consistently be ostracized from the columns of the only strictly religious journal in the State.

A YEAR or two since Hon. Charles Martin was met on the street one evening by an impetuous stranger and asked for a small sum. Mr. Martin handed him a half dollar, for which the stranger appeared to be very grateful. He told his benefactor that he did not know how he could repay the kindness, although small; but he took a paper out of his pocket upon which was written a recipe for the cure of inflammatory rheumatism, and handed it to Mr. Martin, saying that his remedy was an unfailing one. Last Winter Mr. Martin had a friend here in the Legislature who was suffering greatly with inflammatory rheumatism, in fact, his physician informed him that he had "exhausted every remedy, and could do nothing to relieve him. Mr. Martin hearing of this, applied the remedy, externally, which he received from the stranger, and it worked wonders. In a few days after the first application had been made the law maker was completely restored to health. Since then we hear, other marvelous cures have been effected through the agency of the remedy in question.

FROM COMO.—Henry Bartlett, an old time prospector, came to town from Como last evening, brim full of enthusiasm, in his predictions of what Como will be in less than two years. He says present indications warrant the assertion that that camp will contain 2,000 prosperous miners before the lapse of that time. (A little too sanguine, perhaps Ed). Bartlett was in that camp in 1862 and picked up croppings which assayed as high as $1,500 to the ton; but he thinks that the prospectors in those days wanted to find every thing on the surface and would not go down over one hundred feet to strike a bonanza. Times have changed, and so have ideas about mining. From this standpoint he thinks great developments will be made in that sleepy camp—such as will astonish those who deserted it in former days.

THOSE SCHOONERS.—"Let's go to Vic Mullers and get a schooner" said a friend yesterday. "A schooner! what do we want with a schooner? it is a prairie schooner you mean!" He laughed, and presently we found ourselves seated in Vic's back room, with a couple of glasses of foaming, sparkling, cool beer before us. "That's what we call a schooner, said our friend." It was a new wrinkle, but a gloriously pleasant one. They do not sail very far those "schooners," but they are vessels of immense draught. All aboard!

THIS State is being flooded with circulars, issued by unreliable broker firms of San Francisco and New York, offering superior (i) inducements to small dealers in stocks to entrust their few dollars to them, and promising ten fold returns in as many few weeks. The Appeal cautions its readers against reposing confidence in the firms who resort to that class of advertising, for they are irresponsible and untrustworthy. Any one placing a dollar in the hands of such firms is sure to lose it. Steer clear of the sharks.

A LUCKY CHINAMAN.—It is possibly not known to many residents of this city that there is a Chinese lottery conducted here in which large sums of money are occasionally won. On Wednesday night a Chinaman played in 85 cents and drew out $1,700. The fellow's good fortune nearly killed him with joy. Yesterday he packed up his few belongings, and last night took the cars for San Francisco, whence he will sail for China on the next steamer.

IN LOCK.—A letter received here yesterday from M. M. Gaige, who went south on a prospecting tour some time since ago, states that he has found a big mine in Indian District. He sent in some of the rock which, so experts say, will run between $700 and $800 to the ton. We trust that Mr. Gaige has really found a big thing, for he has a nice family who are entitled to all the comforts that money will purchase.

OUR SENATOR.—Hon. John P. Jones passed through here yesterday morning for his home in Gold Hill, accompanied by Hon. Eugene Sullivan, of San Francisco, and Mr. Lon. Hamilton. The Senator has been on the hurricane deck of a mule for the past six weeks, in Colorado, and looks exceedingly well. He was met at the train by a number of his personal friends who gave him a hearty welcome.

CRUELTY TO JACKS.—Deputy Sheriff Powers yesterday arrested an antediluvian Chinaman for packing large loads of wood upon the raw backs of little jacks. He was tried and found guilty of cruelty to animals; fined $15 and partakes of Sheriff Hill's hospitality for the period of seven and a half days.

A PROJECT is on foot to organize a cavalry company in this city. Who the projectors are is as yet unknown. Pity Pant is going away. Perhaps, though, the organization of a mounted military company may have the effect of keeping him in town.

THE SUMMER TRAVEL.—The stages go out to the Lake loaded down with passengers and baggage every morning, although the present cool weather must make the nights in that region somewhat cold for visitors.

EVERYBODY likes it, it is pleasant to take, and a prompt physic. If you are bilious or constipated, try it. The great anti-bilious remedy, syrup of figs. For sale by all druggists. a12*

ARRIVALS.—The following passengers arrived on the southern stage yesterday afternoon: Joe Scossor, G. Pentrich, Paul Adler, A. Harris, A. J. Curtis, two Chinamen.
